Mobile Advertising Screens

Our mobile digital advertising vans (digivans - advans) and trailer mounted screens can be deployed in any prime location and be seen anytime of day or night.

With upto 4 different sizes including single and double sided (2 screen options) our digital advertising screen vans can display your advertising messages on the go.

We can also provide our screens in static locations allowing our advertisers to reach out in high footfall areas.

By using our mobile outdoor advertising vans and trailer screens it's also possible to display video content, something that is not possible when using a standard poster style ad van.

When in a static location our screens can be elevated and rotated 360 degrees. This is perfect for those high footfall locations when delivering that all important message.

With a range of options from single sided to double sided displays we can supply the perfect screen to compliment your advertising campaign. We provide our mobile outdoor advertising screens for many major brands and advertisers throughout the UK.

Our Digital Advertising Screens Stand Out In A Crowded Market

Led Event Screens are working very hard to provide the mobile outdoor digital advertising and marketing sector with the very best state of the art mobile advertising screens.

OUTDOOR EVENT & FESTIVALS

LIVE STREAM / TV FEED LED SCREENS

OUTDOOR CINEMA SCREENINGS

Outdoor cinemas are currently booming in popularity across the UK and draw large crowds to all types of venues and events.

Traditional cinema events used video projectors which require the ambient light to be very low allowing viewing only after dusk which during the summer months can be as late as 9pm. This can be very limited and makes events suitable for children and family's not possible.
